Dedication

The Malcolm X. Shabazz Senior Class proudly dedicates its 1979 year-book to three outstanding educators: Mr. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Stephaine Arrington, and Ms. Belinda Goode.

These educators exemplify all of the positive characteristics that make a teacher unforgettable. They have a firm knowledge of their subject matter; they are energetic, conscientious, hard-working, honest and "down to earth." Most important of all, though, these three individuals are serious educators who attempt to develop independent Black and Hispanic minds capable of controlling their own destinies.

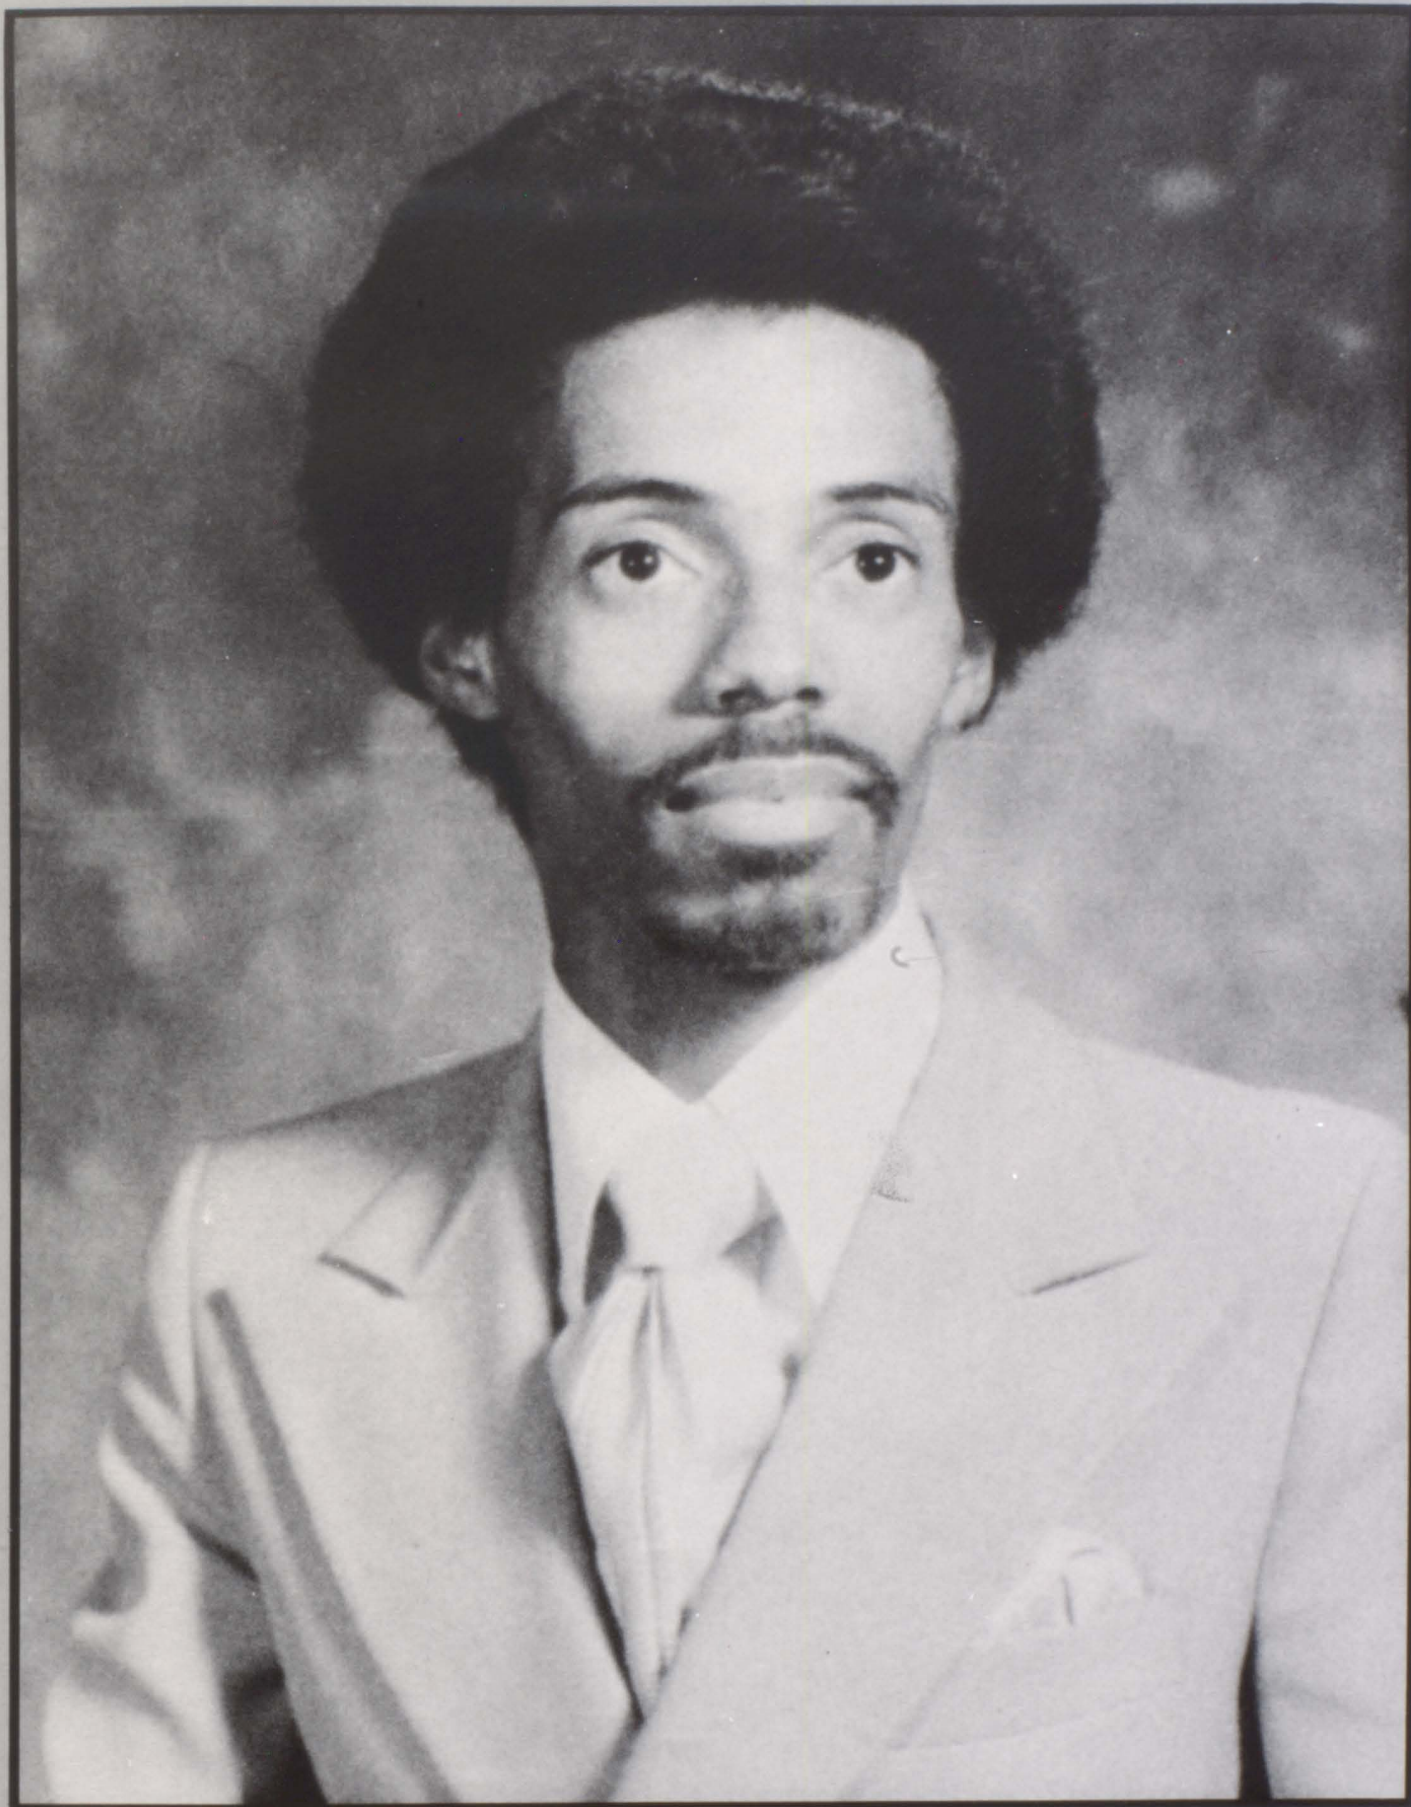

To these three outstanding teachers, we say "Thank you," for your dedication, love, and concern. We will never forget you.

We learn from your actions

We grow
from your strength

We become because you care

Just be
We will profit.

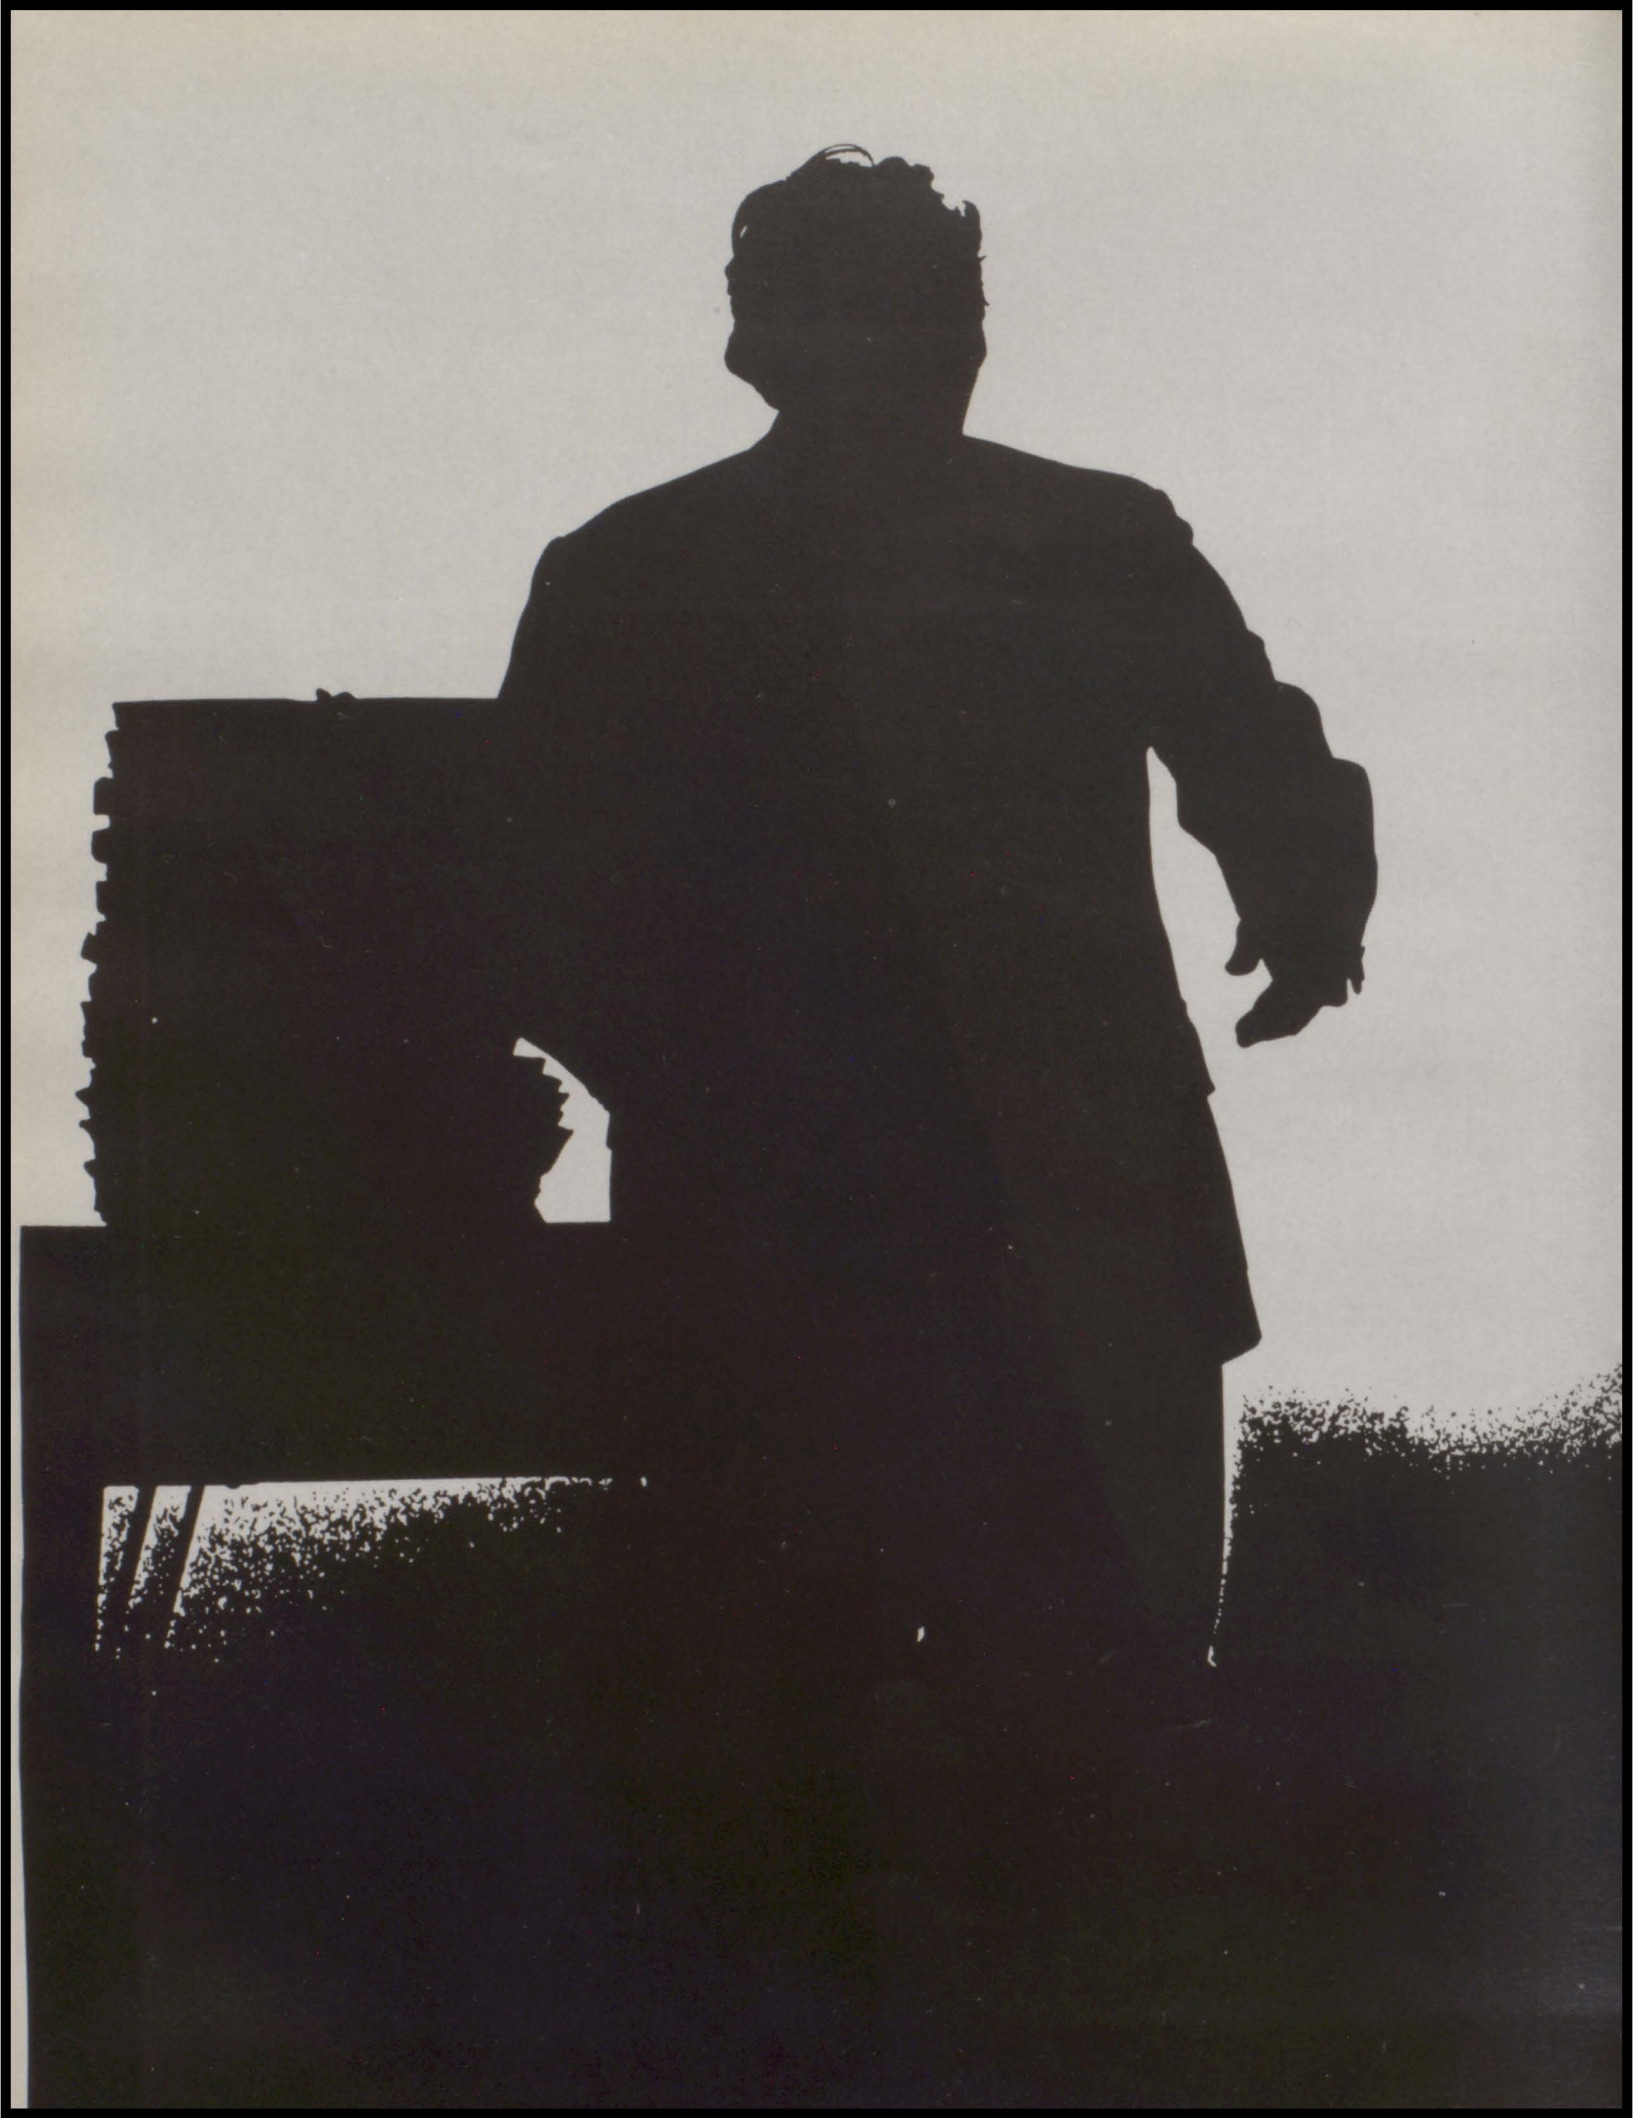

Mr. Charles Stewart

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO THE SENIOR CLASS

Personally I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate each and every member of the 1979 Graduating Class on your successfully completing four years of high school. Perhaps you do not realize it, but high school graduation is one of the most important milestones in your life. It is this milestone that most successful people must pass before they begin to enter any respectable area of employment and therefore high school graduation should not be taken lightly.

Here at Malcolm X Shabazz High School, over a four-year period, we have attempted to provide you with an education which will enable you to appreciate and better understand the world in which we live. Hopefully you will be now able to leave Malcolm X Shabazz High School and begin making successful lives for yourselves through immediately going on to college or by finding a good job or possibly both. We also hope that we have taught you to better understand yourselves and to be proud of what and who you are. We want you to believe that you play an important role in society and hopefully we have provided you with all of the ingredients necessary to enable you to live a meaningful fulfilled life. It has always been my view that the feeling of self fulfillment and purpose are the most important things a high school can give its students and if you are fortunate enough to have received them, you have one of the greatest rewards a person can ever receive.

Some people think of wealth as being extremely important, but what good is wealth if you lack self worth and purpose? What good is wealth if people around you do not appreciate and respect you? What good is wealth if your life is so confused that you are never at peace with yourself?

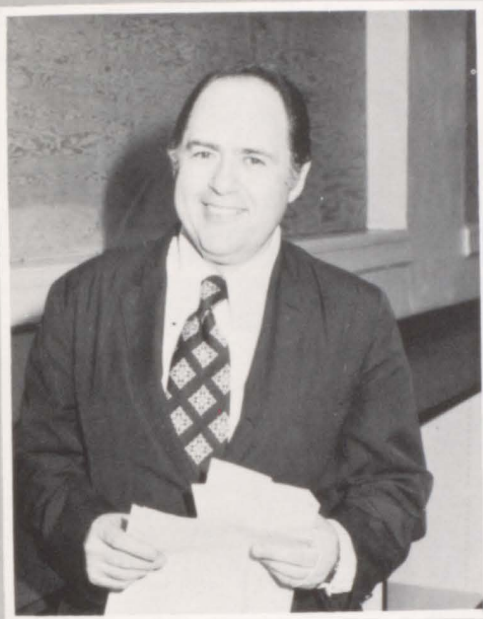

In short, let not the amount of money you have be the measure of your success, but rather let those positive feelings you have about yourself be the deciding factor. Once this attitude is developed, prosperity and a comfortable way of life will follow automatically. Best wishes to all!

Sincerely,
James L. Barrett, Jr.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1979, being of sound mind and body do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament. Considering the uncertainty of life, we bequeath our final thoughts and words of wisdom to a number of our fellow seniors and staff members. We truly hope that they will profit by what is being said and then, "Check themselves out."

To Lisa Comick we leave a microphone so she can be heard. To Reilly Glasgow we leave a pep talk on how to be somebody's man rather than just her friend. To Cynthia Graham and Mike Corprew we leave two summers at Weight Watchers. To Gwen Hutson and Steven Cornick we leave maturity. To Ronald Wright we leave the statement, "Vickie Edwards has her own shadow." To Cynthia McDonald we leave some friends who won't talk about her. To Claude Palmer we leave a jar of Esoterica. To Cathy Northern we leave tips on how to be a Captain and a squad that listens to her. To Warren Armstrong we leave a passing grade. To Wilma Rice we leave the question, "Are you really seventeen?" To Dwayne Johnson we leave a real "you" that someone can know and like. To Vickie Edwards we leave some of Deltah Johnson's hips, chest, and everything else. To Rahman, William Polk, and Charlie Harris we leave a starring role in Animal House. To Yvette Slater we leave someone she can handle, like, a brother her own age. To Charles Ross we leave a book on twelve ways to be a man. To Janet Ausby we leave a crib and a bottle. To Raymond Moody we leave a year's prescription to Petty's Drugstore. To Debrina Harris we leave a date with Pinocchio. To Willie Riggins we leave a book on how to be serious. To Janet Mack we leave an up to date wardrobe. To Kenny Brewster we leave a sledge hammer for his head. To Renee McCray we leave a choice between Leon McGill and Fred Hubbard. To Johnny Oglesby we leave a person whom he can boss around. To Juanita Ferguson we leave the question "What is really under your coat?" To Jose Moreno we leave the playboy of the year award. To Juanita Bynum we leave the presidency of as many offices as she can handle. To Lawrence Furlow we leave a day without telling a lie. To Debra Fountain we leave a spool of thread and a needle to hem her dragging pants. To Ronald Barnes we leave the song, "Brush your breath, brush your breath, brush your breath with Dentyne." To Antoniette Metz we leave a gift certificate at John's Bargain Store. To Stanley Williams, S.G.A. President, we leave impeachment. To Kyrus Baker we leave the presidency of the S.G.A. and food, food, food.

To Tracey Pulley we leave a doll that says, "My name is Tracey Pulley, and I'm nosey as hell." To Sharon Booker we leave a steady man to call her own. To Jace Bradley we leave the bum of the year award and a girl friend that wrestles. To Jerrae Glanton we leave a soft mellow voice. To Derrell Heath we leave Adrienne Wilson in a class all by themselves. To Yvette Paige we dedicate the new building's third floor bathroom. To Byron Green we leave a new pair of plaid pants. To Vickie Taylor we leave Jack's Bargain Store.

To Lillian Williams we leave a way to get a man without bugging him to death. To Jerry Head we leave some Comet to remove his spot. To Robert Worsley we leave a love affair. To Cynthia Tyson we leave the question "What size bra do you wear?" To Sandra Hall we leave a shape like a human being. To Eloise Tanner we leave a style of clothes that fits her size. To Evelyn Perez we leave the key to Calvin's heart. To Brenda and Glenda Good we leave dresses, stockings, and high heeled shoes. To Tanya Smith we leave some true friends. To Donna Fitchett we leave tips on how to be a lad. To Carolyn Murray we leave a nose that will fit her face. To Inez Ferguson we leave a new pair of grey pants to go with her brown shoes. To Theresa Daughety we leave one day for her to stop staring down people's mouths. To Theresa McClinton we leave an appointment with a psychoanalyst. To Joan Terry we leave the quote, "Wake up, he doesn't care." To Tammy Stephens we leave a loose pair of pants.

To the football team we leave a championship season.

To Mr. Cook we leave an all Black high school of his very own. To Ms. Ruglio we leave a last name she can keep. To Mrs. Brownlee we leave makeup that will stay on her face rather than her collar. To Mr. Farber we leave some responsibilities other than unlocking doors. To Mr. Stewart we leave a bull horn to announce his tests. To Miss Lowe we leave a Geometry class that is as spaced out over Geometry as she is. To Mr. Floyd we leave a tube of Proper PH for the bumps on his neck. To Mr. Wharton we leave a rubber suit to protect himself from flying food. To Mrs. Witcher and the Bilalian Student Union we leave a charge account to Piggy Wiggy's supermarket. To Mr. O'Bannon we leave a course in the proper guidance of high school students. To Mr. Curtis we leave a sun tan. To Mr. J. Brown we leave a black & gold classroom and a heart filled with the bulldog spirit. To Mrs. Dowdy we leave an Honor Society where more than half the members attend the meetings. To Mrs. Johnson we leave a position as a professor at Harvard University, maybe then her students will make A's and B's. To Miss Goode we leave a steady job. To Mrs. Towe we leave lessons on how to act civilized, not wild. To Mr. Mayes we leave a year's subscription to Forum, The International Journal of Human Relations. To Mrs. Pollak we leave a yearbook staff that will give her no trouble. To the wild, immature freshmen we leave an oversized playpen to romp in. To the sophomore we leave maturity. To the juniors we leave sophistication and success. To those seniors who were left out of this our final decree we say, YOU'RE LUCKY. To those seniors who feel that they have been unjustly ridiculed we say, TOO BAD!!!!!!!

The Omega Tau Omicron Sorority

Would Like To Congratulate It's Graduating Sisters
 Julia Allen, Theresa Daughety, And Sharon Ford.
 May Success And Happiness Be A Way Of Life.

Some Of The Best College Students Are Veterans.

Not every young man or woman is ready to take full advantage of college right out of high school. Some make far better students at 21 than they would have at 18.

Some need time to learn more about themselves. And others about what they want to do with their lives.

Today's Army offers them this time.

Time to train, travel, meet people, and learn a skill. Time to understand the value of responsibility with good starting pay, $419 a month before deductions.

And there is also the opportunity to start a college program during off-duty hours in the Army. With the Army paying up to 75% of the tuition for approved courses.

CALL ARMY SERGEANT TOM WILSON

372-0232

Join the people who've joined the Army.

When it's your turn
to graduate, you wear your cap and gown for only a few brief hours...
but you can wear
your class ring always.
